Centennial United Methodist Church at Ivy

DECEMBER 2023

A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR JOYCE:

If you're like me, you're busy getting ready for Christmas. It's supposed to be the most wonderful time of the year, but it can feel overwhelming - decorating, buying gifts, sending cards, baking, planning a big holiday meal, trying to hang on to family traditions because that's what's expected.

The truth is, there can be moments when the most wonderful time of the year can be a disappointment.

I remember the year I turned 16. All I wanted for Christmas was a car, a blue Volkswagen Bug. As we're unwrapping the gifts on Christmas morning, I got really excited when they told me that there was one more gift for me. I'd seen those commercials on TV where people get a new car for Christmas, and it's parked in the driveway with a big bow. Instead, my dad handed me a small wrapped box, and I sure there must be a car key in that box. When I opened it up, it was a blue Volkswagen Bug, only it was the Hot Wheels version. It was a good-natured joke, one that I can laugh about today. But my 16-year-old self was pretty bummed out. Christmas that year was a major disappointment. Simply because I had forgotten the real meaning of Christmas.

We are in the season, the church calls Advent, a time of waiting and preparing our hearts for the coming of Christ. Instead of getting caught up in the things that don't really matter...all the noise and busyness of the season, let's remember to wait for Jesus with awe and expectation and wide-eyed wonder.

I want to leave you with a verse from Isaiah 62:1. It was written well before the birth of Jesus. The people needed saving, and the prophet Isaiah cried out to God, Oh Lord, that you would tear open the skies and come down to earth. I love that image of God ripping the skies open to come to us. More than 2,000 years ago, in a manger in Bethlehem, that's exactly what God did. And that's the gift we celebrate!

Grace to you and peace,

Pastor Joyce

Chili and Oyster Soup Supper Thank You!

Thank you to the men's group for spearheading the return of the Chili and Oyster Soup Supper tradition. Thanks also to everyone who helped make the event a success. We served 110 people, many from the surrounding community, plus event volunteers. The response from the community was very positive. The church received $1770 in free will offerings on the day of the event, in addition to other donations given ahead of time to help defray the cost of the oysters. Even after expenses are accounted for, the church will be able to make a nice gift to the Caring Hands Resource Center.

Hanging of the Greens

Centennial UMC has a beautiful sanctuary. On Sunday, November 26th, several members stayed after worship to decorate the inside and outside of the church for the Advent / Christmas Season.

The garland is up, the tree is decorated, the poinsettias are out, the nativity is set up by the road. The church looks wonderful and is ready to receive visitors. Stop by and check it out!
